Surrender, abandonment, and eviction affect Resident's rights to property left in the unit. Surrender, abandonment, and eviction do not affect mitigation obligations.

Resident or any occupant, invitee or guest must not holdover beyond the date contained on the move out notice to vacate or beyond a different move out date agreed to by the parties in writing. If a holdover occurs, then Landlord shall be entitled to damages for the hold over period plus any expenses incurred due to the breach of this condition of the Lease Contract.

In all other respects this Lease Contract shall remain in full force and effect and the term shall not be extended. In no event shall Landlord be liable to Resident for damages caused by failure to deliver possession of the premises. If possession of the premises is not tendered within 10 days of the commencement of the term of this agreement, Resident may terminate this Lease Contract by giving written notice to Landlord, and any monies paid by Resident to Landlord shall be refunded to Resident.

3.4 CONTRACT TERMINATION AND DISPUTE

This Lease Contract may only be amended, waived, or terminated by Landlord's representatives in writing. Landlord's act of not enforcing or belatedly enforcing written notice requirement, rental due dates, acceleration, liens, or other rights is not a waiver under any circumstance.

In the event of more than one Resident, each Resident is jointly and severally liable for each provision of this Lease Contract. Each Resident states that he or she is of legal age to enter into this Lease Contract. All obligations hereunder are to be performed in the county and state where the property is located.

3.5 LIENS AND SALES

Owner may encumber the premises by mortgages, deeds of trust or other financing instruments, and any such instrument so given shall be superior to the rights of Resident herein. Foreclosure of any such instrument shall not constitute a constructive eviction of Resident and Resident agrees to attorn to the purchaser at any such foreclosure or sale as if this Lease Contract was between Resident and such purchaser directly. Any sale of the premises or of the building of which the premises are a part shall not affect this Lease Contract or any of the obligations of Resident hereunder, but upon such sale, the prior owner of the property shall be released from all obligations hereunder and Resident shall look solely to the then owner of the property for the performance of Landlord's duties hereunder after the date of such sale. It is agreed between Landlord and Resident that the Landlord, while entitled to possess and rent the premises, will notify the Resident in the event Landlord believes that a lender who holds a mortgage will eventually foreclose the premises. Resident may be entitled to protections afforded by state and federal laws; Resident agrees that he/she may seek the advice of an attorney to learn of his/her rights.
